Gotlieb Steckmeyer took in the apple show in Sebastopol last Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Norrbom autoed to Sebastopol the latter of last week and took in the apple show.

There is still a large crowd each evening at the El Verano Villa attending the dances. The dance music by Professors Peebles, Merks and Meyer is the latest and every body enjoys it Westley Colgan, the good-looking assistant baggage man on the Santa Rosa and Vallejo Junction run, is still the candy kid on the S. P. train each afternoon. This time it is our local belles, who assemble on the depot platform and make goo-goo eyes at him as he passes through here on his daily run.

Deputy Game and Fish Commissioner Freeman, one of Sonoma Valley's fearless officers, was in town Saturday, after having made an inspection of Sonoma creek in regard to a number of dams reported to have been constructed across that stream at various points. He failed to discover any, however, and had his trouble for nothing.

There was a big time last Sunday at the popular Fetters' Hot Springs when the United Cigar Co. of San Francisco held its annual outing there. A brass band accompanied the merry-makers, dancing, games and feasting being the order of the day. A large number of the visitors also took advantage of the big swimming tank and with the thermometer 102 in the shade enjoyed the dip immensely.

There was a demand for the Santa Rosa Republican here last Sunday morning. Everybody wanted to read the able editorial which referred to our big scream, "one Guy J. K. Bigelow" The article was well written and it plainly showed that the outside districts are beginning to realize this fellow's methods. We congratulate the Republican on the stand it has taken in this Supervisor Weise recall fiasco.

John Basilou, the local barber, who put in most of his time last spring planting a vegetable garden, is bemoaning the loss of a number of watermelons, stolen from his patch one night last week. John is in hot pursuit of the thief and vows vengeance on him if captured. Not being content with purloining the missing melons but those he could not carry away with him he cut in two and left behind as a reminder of his visit, and just to think, John was sleeping less than ten feet away from his melon patch when all this happened.

The League of the Cross Cadets of San Francisco will arrive at Agua Caliente Springs on Saturday evening for a two-day's outing. The entire regiment, including the band, two battalions and hospital corps, under the command of Col. Flynn, will turn out. On Sunday morning Father Collins, chaplain of the league, will celebrate military mass in the open. The regular army cooking school will be established on the grounds and there will be a grand entertainment and ball, concert, baseball game and other features on Saturday evening and Sunday.

Dr. and Mrs. Leix of Sonoma left the latter part of last week for an extended trip through Europe. Miss Georgie Andrews accompanied them as far as the metropolis.

At a meeting of the Wednesday afternoon ladies sewing club of this place, presided over by editress Miss Belle Brandon, it was unanimously voted to endorse Supervisor Harry Weise as its candidate against Elmer Kilgore, the prohibition candidate put up by one J. K. Bigelow

Claude Wyatt, the nine year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Wyatt, while riding along the county road near here on a bicycle, one day last week, was ran down by a passing vehicle, and had his shoulder blade broken. The heartless driver left the little fellow lying helpless alongside the road without going to his assistance. Earl Revie happened along soon after the accident and picked the injured lad up and took him home. At present a search is being made for the wretch who was responsible for the little fellow's injuries, which are quite serious.

Was it Gen Huesta of Mexican fame who rode through this town last Friday, or was it some distinguished American army officer in quest of recruits to join the army? The question was passed along by several of our well-known townsmen. But just guess who it was. None other than "detective" Landsborough of the despicable Exposition, who sat astride a horse while crossing through the fields surrounding our quiet burg. To McKiver he looked like he was herding news into the office of the newspaper he represents.

Reformer Guy Bigelow was telling the voters during the Supervisorial contest last fall between Blair Hart and Harry Weise what a bad man Hart was—crooked, corrupt, a creature of the System, etc. Now, he has the effrontery to come out in his disreputable sheet and tell what a great Supervisor Mr. Hart made, which is in keeping with the man who has stirred up all the trouble in Sonoma Valley the past four or five years, just as he is now behind the attempted recall of Supervisor Weise because he can't run him. On September 16th, men and women voters, go to the polls and vote against the recall and thus rebuke Bigelow, the most undesirable citizen in all these parts.

Figuring Horse-Power of Automobile Engines

To find the horse-power of your motor-car, square the diameter of the cylinder, multiply it by the number of cylinders, and divide it by 2½.

"That is the rule adopted by the Society of Automobile Engineers. It is not absolutely accurate but it is approximately so, at a definite piston speed, and it is at least as fair for one maker as for another.

"While we are interested in this computation, still the Hudson cars are not rated according to any arbitrary formula. We test Hudson engines on a dynamometer, which gives readings showing actual brake horse-power. The motor of the "54," a Six-Cylinder car develops 57.8 horse-power at 1,500 revolutions per minute. At a little higher engine speed it shows 65 horse-power.

"It is hardly fair therefore to any of the modern efficient motor-cars to use the standard S. A. E. rating. Efforts are being made to secure a more accurate formula, and it is likely that this will be accomplished. Practically all motors are now made with the long stroke. This affects very much the accuracy of the standard rating."

The Recall of Supervisor Weise and the County Press.

It is with some degree of satisfaction that we note that the press of Sonoma County has at last taken up arms against agitator J. K. Bigelow and his methods and is standing in with the Index-Tribune to protect the tax-payers of the county against the would-be egotistical leader and all round mischief maker, whose motto is rule or ruin. Last week we published a leading editorial from the Press Democrat of Santa Rosa, the leading Democratic daily of Sonoma County, which is against the recall of Supervisor Weise on the grounds that he has committed no act to justify his recall. This week we copy the following editorial from the Santa Rosa Republican, the leading daily of this county, which very appropriately speaks of the mischief-breeder of the Sonoma Valley as "one Bigelow." The Republican in voicing its sentiments against the recall of Supervisor Weise says:

"The campaign—if so it may be called—for the recall of Supervisor Weise would be a farce except for the fact that the taxpayers will be called upon to pay the bills for the most stupid action ever attempted in Sonoma county."

"The arguments, to dignify them with a name, of the Sonoma Valley Expositor, are so wishy washy and puerile as to excite only ridicule and pity that a cause of any sort can be based on such frivolous grounds.

"Denuded of all the fol de rol and rubbish, the one fact stands forth preeminently, that one Bigelow, does not approve of Mr. Weise's incumbency of a position in which the Expositor admits he has made an excellent official, except in one or two particulars, where the minority disagrees with the majority—and the law in the case."

"Mr. Weise is not the whole Board of Supervisors."

"He is one among five who have earnestly endeavored to meet the wishes of a majority of their constituents in solving a most perplexing problem—the control of road houses and saloons.

"Each member has troubles of his own, in his own section or district, and if Mr. Weise was not the member from Sonoma district, the result would be just the same. because each and every member looks at the letter and spirit of the law and votes to construe it as it plainly reads.

"No man can succeed Mr. Weise and do more—under the law—than he has done to stamp out vice and immorality in the Sonoma valley. The vote and influence of no one man can override the plain provisions of the law.

"Mr. Weise is fully acquainted with the needs of his constituents—the great majority of them—and no predecessor or successor, has done or could do more than he has done to further the best interests of the people who placed him in office.

"The campaign of slander, misrepresentation or false allegations can not lower him in the estimation of the great majority of the voters in the Sonoma district.

"When the smoke of the conflict has passed there will be a big bill of costs to pay and the tax payers of Sonoma county must foot the bill.

"Harry Weise will be (unnecessarily) vindicated by an overwhelming vote and will continue to, as he has in the past, represent the majority of those who elected him, to the best of his ability, greater than his alleged opponent can show.

"Fearless, intelligent and active in behaf of his constituents, Mr. Weise welcomes the attack, which will prove but a vote of confirmation from the thinking voters—an overwhelming majority—of Sonoma valley citizens."

A Bum Lawyer and Hypocritical Reformer and the Blind Pigger.

A sensation was sprung in Judge Campbell's court in this city last Tuesday during the trial of Nicola Ramazano, a grocery dealer of El Verano, who had been arrested by Deputy Sheriff Joe Ryan, one day last week, charged with violating the county liquor ordinance.

The defendant was represented by attorney Frank Sprague and the prosecution by District Attorney Clarence F. Lea.

The sensation in the case came when the accused took the witness stand and the following questions in substance were put to him by attorney Sprague to answer under oath:

Question—Mr. Ramazano, what is your business?

Answer—I sell groceries, vegetables, beer, wine, etc.

Question—Have you a license to sell beer and wine?

Answer—I have a U. S. revenue license and was told by the revenue man that I could sell not less than a quart and not more than 4¾ gallons on that license.

Question—Did anybody else ask you if you were selling liquor?

Answer—Yes, Mr. Bigelow. He asked me if I was selling liquor. I told him yes. He asked me if I had a license. I told him I held a revenue license. He said that was all right.

Question—You knew Mr. Bigelow was making a fight to stop the sale of liquor here, did you not?

Answer—Yes. We were friendly. He patronized me. I knew he was a lawyer, and when he told me that it was all right I felt perfectly safe in selling as I did. I did not try to hide anything.

Judge Campbell, in view of the above confession, fined the defendant $10.00, which was perfectly right and proper, as it was as clear as daylight that Ramazano had been the victim of a bum lawyer and hypocritical reformer, for did he not swear on the witness stand that he was running a blind pig on the advice of J. K. Bigelow, who dared not take the witness stand and deny the accusation.

The accused, who is evidently a well-meaning man, paid his fine, while Bigelow, who aided and abetted him in violating the liquor ordinance goes scot free and is still at large whoopin' 'em up for the recall of Supervisor Weise, who is doing his level best to enforce the liquor ordinance of the county.

Now, what do you think of that?

Last Sunday's Victory

Sonoma 6; McDonald & Collette 3. Batteries: Rylander and Anselmi; Bliss and Honey. Umpires: O. Dresel and James.

The game was a corker after the first inning, when the visitors permitted the home guard to score five runs. After that there was no more scoring until the seventh frame when the sixth run was squeezed over. The city boys made their runs in the middle of the game by dint of cautious base-running and opportune batting.

Owing to the absence of George and Bill Block, Nessi and Anselmi were shifted to second base and behind the plate. Both boys were on their mettle at all times and played fine ball.

Bliss and Honey, of the losers, compose one sweet battery. The former allowed only four clean hits and fanned ten men, while the latter caught and pegged like a demon. The visitors were particularly strong at first base and short stop.

Bob LaTorres, fourth man up for the home team, slammed out a homer, the ball going to the left field fence. Bob got two of the four hits made by the winners. First baseman Al Jansen got in wrong. After being hit by a pitched ball he got spiked and had to quit the game.

We are glad to see Jack Canevari back in the game "Can" is a good earnest player and we'll sure miss him when he signs up with the slipping seals next March.

"Iron Man" Rylander pitched his usual steady game. The Sonoma outfielders, Evans, Canevari and Leiser, did splendid work in their respective gardens. Short stop Lund went into the game with a very sore hand. Consequently his fielding was not as good as usual.

Baseball Sunday

Tomorrow afternoon the fast Yountville team will try conclusions with the Sonoma boys on the local diamond. Manager McDevitt states that he will endeavor to have his strongest line-up on the field and a hot game is expected. The curtain rises at 2 o'clock p. m.

Hay Market.

Somer's & Co., in their weekly bulletin, report the hay market for the past week as follows:

Hay continues to arrive in large quantities, the total receipts for the week amounting to 5031 tons in comparison with 5334 tons during the week previous. With the exception of completing deliveries on contracts previously made, there is comparatively little hay moving from cars to consumers barns and as a result it has been necessary for dealers to store considerable hay locally. The general range of prices of course is weak, but there is some little inquiry for fancy tame oat and fancy wheat hay in light bales of which there is very little arriving at the present time.

Conditions in the country are about the same as here; very little trading is going on and farmers are in many instances hauling hay unusual distances in order to secure storage room. In some few districts where the crops are light, the fields are nearly cleaned up although there is in other localities considerable hay out of doors ready for shipment but the owners being unable to find buyers.

It is probable that from now on receipts of hay will lessen somewhat, although it is not probable that we will see any change in prices for some little time to come.

Violators of Game Law Fined

Why, Sam, We are Astonished at You.

Sam Woodworth published the following confession in last Tuesday's Expositor. Can it be possible that Bigelow, who is an avowed enemy of the socialist doctrine, has got you buffaloed, Sam?

"An editorial appeared in the Saturday's Index-Tribune slurring Mr. J. K. Bigelow in regard to the Socialistic meeting on last Wednesday evening. Mr. Bigelow was asked as a personal favor to myself to preside at this meeting, but after talking it over with some of the comrades from our circle here, we concluded that it would be better to have a member of our local circle act as chairman. Upon this being conveyed to Mr. Bigelow he readily agreed with us. You can plainly see how our leader felt in regard to Mr. Bigelow, for on Wednesday he not only took lunch with him at his home, but spent most of the afternoon there."

UNIVERSITY GIRL COMMITS SUICIDE.

Miss Ida Juillerat, Owing to Ill Health, Takes Poison—Was Well Known in Sonoma.

"Good bye, I have to do it." With these words, says the Oakland Enquirer, Miss Ida Juillerat, graduate of the University of California and author of several books of children's poems, kissed her mother and father in the dining room of their home at 946 Sixty-first street, Monday morning, then swallowed the contents of a bottle of poison.

She was removed to Fabiola hospital where she died.

Miss Juillerat was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Juillerat. Juillerat is secretary of the Swiss Benevolent Society of San Francisco and the family is well known about the bay. Miss Juillerat was between 28 and 30 years of age and a graduate of the University of California with the class of 1904.

Some years ago Miss Juillerat attained some fame when she published a book of jingles for children and subsequently wrote several books of verses and stories. She was considered talented during her career in college and later devoted much of her time to literary endeavor.

Mrs. Juillerat, mother of the girl said:

"Ida had been suffering from a nervous breakdown for a long time. She worked too strenuously and devoted all her time to her ambition. Unable to realize her desires and suffering intensely from worry and illness, she apparently decided to end it all. While she gave us no inkling of what she was about to do, at the same time we know that her condition of mind and body was the reason for her rash act.

"We were all in the dining room when Ida came down. She had been depressed for many days. "Good bye, I have to do it," she said. Then before we could prevent her, she swallowed the poison.

Miss Juillerat is survived by her father and mother, a brother and two sisters, one of the latter being Mrs. R. E. Lynch of this city.

Miss Eva Fraser Wedded Last Tuesday.

Miss Eva Fraser, formerly of this city but for a number of years a resident of Alameda and a daughter of Mrs. Flora J. Fraser, was married to Clarence Peck at the home of her mother last Tuesday. The young groom is a graduate of the State University and will take the position of head of the department of history in the Fresno high school next term.

The wedding was a simple home affair in which the bride was unattended Rev. E. C. Champlin of San Rafael, pastor of the First Congregational church and a brother-in-law of the bride, read the marriage service. The bride was gowned in a tailored suit of brown cloth and hat to match and the couple left for a honeymoon trip of a few weeks, after which they will take up their residence in Fresno and establish their own home.

Mrs. Peck has a wide circle of friends in this city and will receive many good wishes for her future happiness. She is a sister of Mrs. E. C. Champlin, who was Miss Maude Fraser, a teacher in the Sonoma High School; before her marriage a few years ago.

Mrs. L. S. Simmons and daughter, Miss Gladys Simmons, on their return from the metropolis last Saturday evening, where the former had gone to meet her daughter who had been visiting in Southern California for the past two months, were agreeably surprised upon entering their home to find it had been elaborately decorated by their friends and neighbors in honor of their return. It was a surprise to them and one, too, that was fully appreciated.

Jack London's Castle Ruined by Fire.

A mysterious fire which broke out at midnight Friday in Jack London's redwood and stone castle situated on the big estate of the noted author near Glen Ellen, completely gutted the interior of the magnificent edifice and all but destroyed it except the stone walls. The loss will be between $35,000 and $40,000, partly covered by insurance.

Jack London has announced that the work of restoration will be commenced at once.

The fire is supposed to have been of an incendiary nature, probably the act of a discharged employee.

Royal Hawaiian Entertainers Coming.

The Royal Hawaiian Singers and entertainers will be heard in Sonoma on the evening of Friday, Sept. 5th. This is the second in the series of entertainments given under the auspices of the board of directors of the Congregational Church. The program consists of vocal and instrumental selections of both Hawaiian and American music. The instruments used are brought direct from the islands and are different from any known or used in this country.

This is a rare opportunity for our people to see, hear and enjoy the wonderful music produced by these islanders whose ability to produce sweet and harmonious melody is attested whereever they have been heard.

SONOMA-MARIN COUNTIES FAIR.

Will Open in Santa Rosa Next Monday and Continue for Six Days—It will be a Great Exposition

The Sonoma-Marin Counties District Fair opens at Santa Rosa on September 1st. The old Santa Rosa race track is being used for the fair, which promises to be one of the finest agricultural displays ever made in this state and is said to rival the state fair in size and number of its exhibits.

Second to the agriculture department comes the Pacific Coast Trotting Horse Breeders' Association annual racing meet, which is to be held in conjunction with the fair. Purses amounting to $18,000 have been hung up by this organization and the fastest trotting horses on the Pacific slope and from many points in the middle west are arriving daily. The program of harness events is a most alluring one and will furnish several afternoons of keen, clean sport.

The agricultural department in which is included stock and poultry will be the feature of the fair. An immense poultry tent has been secured and here the finest fowls obtainable will be shown with fancy and utility pigeons. Entries by the hundreds have been made in the poultry department and the immense tent will be well filled with members of the feathered tribe.

The restriction of registry has been taken from the stock entry qualifications and as a result the farmers eveywehere are signing entry blanks for stallion horses, mares, sheep, hogs, bulls and all other kinds of cattle and stock that the ranch boasts of Special quarters have been provided for these and they will be kept in sanitary, healthy surroundings and given the best of care and attention.

Then there is the pavilion for general exhibits, including arts and crafts, products of the soil of all kinds, and the manufacturing tent is given as big a space as that occupied by the ordinary circus. Prominent manufacturers all over the coast have sent in exhibits and purchased space and the showing will be most comprehensive.

Congregational Church, August 31, 1913.

Morning services 11 a. m.

In this service we will show that a man is transparent. He must die to become opaque or he may make advances to opaqueness if he keeps his mouth shut. Silence is golden, if it is not dead, but filled with intelligence or other signs of designed life. You cannot live without showing self, but you can let Christ live in you and show himself. Man is not hankering after a calvery. It may be the way to a seat at God's right hand, but men don't want it. O no! Give them a toboggan. I am thinking of wire woven cots to make church going popular.

Evening service 8 p. m.

Men like to awaken the envy of their fellows and the other sex are never as happy as when they excel at it. Darwin may be right, but if he had made evolution to be work, some people would have staid. To be good you must evolve; you must practice; you must repeat the effort. We would all like to show off if it were not for the trouble it takes. We would all be godly if we could lie down on flowery beds of ease and sing our way to glory. A good juggler can't be as lazy as some people loosely termed hypocrites.

Come to church Sunday evening and I will show you a way to shine to your heart's content and never fear your competitors.

Notice To Tradesmen.

Notice is hereby given to the public and tradesmen in particular not to give credit to my wife without first having consulted with me. My reason for this is that I do not want her to contract an indebtedness that I am not in a financial position to pay. I will pay all bills contracted by her up to date.
